

GRIFFITH PARK

MILITARY

Appreciation Day

SATURDAY, AUGUST 2, 2003

Los Angeles Live Steamers Club...

The Los Angeles Live Steamers Club (LALS) is showing its appreciation of the U.S. Armed Forces by opening its facility at Griffith Park to military members and their dependents, August 2, from 10am-4pm. The Los Angeles Live Steamers Club is a private club and not normally open to the public. LALS will provide free train rides. A hotdog lunch will be available for $3 at the site, but you are also free to bring in your own food; it's a great place for a picnic! You will also have the opportunity to visit Walt Disney's Train Barn, located within the Live Steamer's facility.

Date: Saturday, August 2

Time: 10:00am-4:00pm

Location:

Griffith Park, Los Angeles

5202 Zoo Drive, Los Angeles, California 90027

Admission: Free with Military/Dependent ID cards.

Entrance is FREE, but limited to the first 1000 guests

Bring the family.
Bring a picnic.
Plan to spend the day!

Includes:

- Free admission to LA Live Steamer Club Facility
- Free Train Rides
- Free admission to Walt Disney's Train Barn
- Discount to LA Zoo
- FREE admission to the Autry Western Museum

LA ZOO...The LA Zoo discount admission coupons will be distributed to military members when they enter the LALS site on Saturday.

Gene Autry Western Heritage Museum...FREE admission to the military and their families on Saturday and Sunday, Aug 2 & 3, with military ID.

Directions:

Griffith Park is about a 1-hour drive from NBVC. From Ventura County, take the 101 South towards LA. Stay on 101 until it splits into the 134. Take the 134 East towards Burbank/Glandale. Take Forest Lawn Drive exit and turn right on Forest Lawn Drive. Turn Left on Zoo Drive. Los Angeles Live Steamers Club facility is at 5202 Zoo Dr.

WALT
DISNEY'S BARN

TAKE A RIDE!

Entry is FREE!

If you haven't ever visited
Griffith Park,
this is a wonderful opportunity to spend the day enjoying an array of entertainment options for the whole family at one of Los Angeles' most picturesque parks.